FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Phillips Industries Introduces New PhillipsTools App with Access to Product and Company Information

Santa Fe Springs, CA (February 21, 2019) Phillips Industries has developed and released a new app that offers quick and easy availability to information related to the company and their products in one centralized location. It is simple to use and a great tool for distributors and users of Phillips products.

Access to updated product literature and catalogs, including Phillips' 24V products, in English, Spanish and French are instantly available with simple navigation. Product bulletins regarding product revisions and/or upgrades can also be accessed along with Phillips' library of Tech Tips. Their award-winning company and product videos can be viewed in the app as well.

Currently, the PhillipsTools app is available for Apple iPad devices only and can be downloaded from the Apple App Store by searching for PhillipsTools.
